Dear Parent

As you may have seen in this term's diary, on 12th June, all Third Form pupils will be participating in a cross-curricular day focusing on the Holocaust.

This event will be jointly run by the History, Religious Studies and PSHEE Departments, and consists of a series of workshops led by the Badac Theatre Company. The day will culminate in a performance of the play Ashes to Ashes, which follows the day-to-day existence of two concentration camp inmates. Pupils will attend the first two lessons as usual before coming off timetable for the remainder of the day.

This day was a great success last year, and received overwhelmingly positive responses from the pupils. It also links directly to the work that pupils have been undertaking in their History lessons this term, and our hope is that this experience will add to their understanding of this hugely important event.

If you have any additional questions, please do not hesitate to contact me via telephone or email.

Yours sincerely

Lizzie Milton
